Yorkshire, formally known as the County of York, is a historic county of Northern England and the largest in the United Kingdom. Due to its great size in comparison to other English counties, it has been broken into East, West, South and North Yorkshire. Hesse is in East Yorkshire, also known as East Riding or Yorkshire.

Within the borders of the historic county of Yorkshire are vast stretches of unspoiled countryside. These areas can be found in the Yorkshire Dales and North York Moors and with the open aspect of some of the major cities such as Leeds, Hull, Rotherham and Sheffield. The emblem of Yorkshire is the White Rose. Yorkshire is famous for farming and agriculture.
