The termly fee quoted is calculated on the daily return costs over the whole term and the discounted price is approximately a saving of 10%. To obtain a termly pass the discounted fee must be paid in advance - allowing at least ten school days for new passes to be issued before the end of the previous term.

If a child requires a replacement bus pass through loss and/or damage, please request this in writing or email on office@hessleacademy.com A new card will be issued within 48 hours of receipt of your written request.

Please make payment for the termly bus pass via ParentPay or by cheque made payable to Hessle High School. *To pay by cash, please telephone the School Office on 01482 648604 for a PayPoint barcode.

Sixth Form students will be issued with a complimentary annual bus pass (on completion of this form) which they must produce each time they ride the bus. In return for the pass we expect our most senior students would set an example in terms of their behaviour and take on responsibility for the wellbeing of younger students using the service.
