Dear Parent/Carer

We have loved welcoming your children into Reception over the past week and everyone is settling in beautifully.

As mentioned before the summer, we will be having our sorting ceremony for the children this month and we would love to invite you to attend. The sorting ceremony is to allocate all children into Penguin teams for points and competitions throughout the year.

The ceremony will take place on Friday 13 September at 1.45pm. We will then have a stay and play session back in the classroom so you can see what your children get up to, whilst at school.

In order to accommodate space for all families, we ask that only one adult per child attends and that younger siblings do not attend the ceremony and the stay and play.

Whilst there is no cost to you for this event, your consent will still be required for your attendance by 12.30pm on Thursday 12 September. To do this, please log into the portal and search for Activities/Trips.

If you have not yet activated your parent portal account, please click here

Many thanks for your support and we look forward to seeing you then.

Yours faithfully
Reception Team
