

The Chocolate Room

Charlie Bucket loves chocolate. And Mr Willy Wonka, the most wondrous inventor in the world is opening the gates of his amazing chocolate factory. Charlie needs just one golden ticket and Mr Wonka's delicious treats could all be his. Throughout this theme, you will be: learning about the Mayan Civilisation; studying different types of settlement and land use and understanding what constitutes a healthy lifestyle.

Key Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary
Andy Warhol	An American artist who was best known for his role in Pop Art.
Cacao	The seeds from a tropical tree from which we get chocolate.
Civilisation	Settled communities of people.
Distribution	The way that things are divided and spread about.
Inequality	The quality of being unequal or uneven: such as a difference of opportunity.
Mayan	A civilisation that lived in Mesoamerica (Mexico and Central America) and who helped with the discovery of cocoa and its uses.
Obesity	Abnormal fat gain that presents a risk to health.
Pop Art	A style of art that involves the use of bright, contrasting colours.
Settlement	A place where people have begun to live.
Trade	To give something in exchange for something else.

Key Dates

Key Dates
1500 BC – 300 BC	The Olmec Indians are believed to be the first to grow cacao beans as a domestic crop.
1000 BC – 1697 AD	Mayan Civilisation
1847	Francis Fry creates the first modern chocolate bar.

Useful Information

Countries involved in chocolate production.	Ghana, Brazil, Côte d'Ivoire, Indonesia
Chocolate key words	cacao, cocoa, cocoa butter, cocoa nibs, cocoa beans
Mayans	Gods: Kukulcan (Elements), Ek Chua (Chocolate) Countries: Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, Honduras Landmarks: Chichen Itza, El Castillo, Tikal.

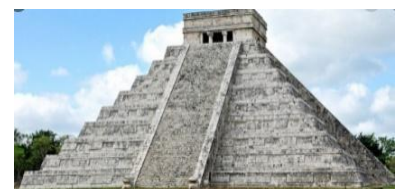

Cocoa pods growing on trees.

Andy Warhol 'Soup' pop art.

Fairtrade logo.

A Mayan temple.